Dr Gavan Griffith QC is counsel at the Australian and English bars with over 30 years seniority as a silk, holding 8 Commissions as Queen's Counsel. Following extensive commercial, constitutional and public law practice as counsel, he was appointed Solicitor-General of Australia (Australia's Second Law Officer, ex officio the leader of the Australian bars) from 1984 to 1997. Since 1998, continuing practice, now principally from London chambers, as counsel in commercial and public law matters and as arbitrator in commercial, investment and treaty disputes (usually as presiding tribunal member).

As Solicitor-General of Australia, pleaded some 250 constitutional, international law and other cases before the entire bench of the High Court of Australia. Also appeared before other Supreme Courts in Australia and other jurisdictions, including the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, and in Malaysia, Fiji, Nauru and the Solomon Islands.

Agent and Counsel of Australia at the International Court of Justice in the cases of Certain Phosphate Lands (Nauru v. Australia); East Timor (Portugal v. Australia); the Australian request to intervene in the Request for an Examination of the Situation (New Zealand v. France) and the two requests for Advisory Opinions by the WHO and the General Assembly as to the Legality of Nuclear Weapons.

Australian delegate and sometime Vice-Chairman to UNCITRAL 1984 to 1997, where work included the drafting and adoption of the UNCITRAL Model Law in 1985 and other Treaties and Conventions.

Representative of Australia at the UN General Assembly, including the Sixth Committee.

Australian Delegate to the Hague Conference on Private International Law 1989 to 1997.

Recurrent terms as member, and sometime Chairman, of the INTELSTAT Panel of Legal Experts (3 terms), and of the Permanent Court of Arbitration, and the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators.

Seconded 1994 -1995 as Special Counsel to the Under-Secretary of Legal Affairs, UN New York, to write a report, since implemented, on the reform of the internal legislative structure of the United Nations.

The Australian Financial Review's 2012 'Power Edition' named him as one of only three leading counsel who will 'keep securing some of the bar's biggest briefs'.
