

Rule 22: Interim measures ordered by Arbitration Tribunal

(1) The Arbitration Tribunal may, at the request of a party, order a party to take any interim measure of protection in respect of the subject-matter of the dispute as it may consider necessary.

(2) The Arbitration Tribunal may require a party to provide appropriate security in connection with a measure ordered under sub-rule (1). The Arbitration Tribunal shall have the discretion to draw the appropriate adverse inferences in the event of a party's noncompliance with the Tribunal's order.

(3) The powers of the Arbitration Tribunal under this rule shall not prejudice any party's right to apply to any national court or other judicial authority for interim measures. The application of a party to a judicial authority for such measures or for the implementation of any such measures ordered by an arbitral tribunal shall not be deemed an infringement or waiver of the agreement to arbitrate and shall not affect the relevant powers reserved to the Tribunal.
