

Rule 20: Recording of Mediation proceedings

Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, there shall be no stenographic, audio or video recording of the mediation proceedings.

The Mediator may take personal notes regarding dates and progress of the mediation proceedings for his/her personal use. The Mediator's notes, the parties' submissions and other documents should be stored in a reasonably secure location and shall be destroyed in accordance with the provision of Rule 16(f).