

Faiyaz Bin Hasan, Barrister-at-law
(CEDR, UK Accredited Mediator & Master Trainer)

Faiyaz Bin Hasan is a Barrister in the England & Wales and an Advocate in the Supreme Court of Bangladesh. He has significant work experience in Securities laws of Bangladesh both having worked as Head of Legal at the Dhaka Stock Exchange Ltd. and as an external lawyer. He specializes in Securities, Company and Commercial matters.

At present, he is an Assistant General Manager, heading the Legal & Asset Management Department at Grameen Telecom Trust chaired by the Nobel Laureate Dr. Muhammad Yunus and takes care of various legal issues concerning organizations in the Grameen Family.

After completing his LL.B (Hons.) from the University of London, LL.M in International Commercial Law from City University, London and Post Graduate Diploma in Professional Legal Skills from the City Law School, London, he was called as a Barrister from the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn. He has been an Associate at Chancery Chambers and later of Late Dr. M. Zahir. He has also been a Senior Partner at Amicus Curiae.

Apart from his experience in providing legal services, Faiyaz delivered part-time lectures on law at Masters level at the University of Information Technology & Sciences and at undergraduate level at the London College of Legal Studies (South) for several years. Faiyaz is a Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR), UK Accredited Mediator and Trainer enlisted with BIAC and engaged in advocacy, introduction, practice and advancement of Mediation within the legal system of Bangladesh.