

Lieutenant Colonel Md. Munirul Islam, psc
Assistant Director Ordnance Services,
Ordnance Directorate, Army Headquarters
(CEDR Accredited Mediator)
E-mail : munir292004@yahoo.com

Lieutenant Colonel Md. Munirul Islam, psc is serving in Bangladesh Army. He is a logistician in general and Procurement expert in particular. He has completed his S.S.C and H.S.C from Mirzapur Cadet College. He has done his graduation on Social sciences and Masters on Defense Studies from National University.

Munir has attended many training programme related to his profession within country and abroad too. Mainly, %Advanced Arbitration Training Course+ from International Law Institute U.S.A, %United States Procurement and Financing System+from Defense Institute of Security Assistance Management (DISAM) Dayton USA, %Public Procurement in Bangladesh+ form BUET, %Implementation of Chemical weapon convention+form OPCW Switzerland, %Mobile International Defense management course+from Naval Post Graduate school California, %Ware house and Inventory management Training+from Bell Helicopter Singapore, %Diploma on Defense Hardware from Hubei University China. He has also completed his %Basic training on Spanish Language Course+from Language Institute Dhaka University.

In his 21year carrier, Munir has served mostly in the different logistic Installations as Procurement specialist. Mainly, in Honorable Prime Ministers office, Armed Forces Division (AFD) as procurement staff, Directorate General Defense Purchase (DGDP), as Assistant Director Purchase. In AFD, Munir is experienced in dealing many Government-to-Government contracts, processing High value procurement, End User Certificate etc. In DGDP, he is experienced of inviting International tender, bidding, preparing International contracts, negotiation, risk assessment and critical management of procurement. He has also commanded two Logistics Installations. He is experienced in serving United Nations Peace keeping Mission twice. Firstly in Ethiopia-Eretria, secondly in Ivory Coast. Presently, he is working as Assistant Director Ordnance Services in Army Headquarters.

Munir is interested to mediate in disputes related to contract management, corporate governance, public private partnership, development partnership matters, telecommunication matters, general commercial matters, intellectual property, Human Resources and NGO issues.

Munir is married to Shakh Shamima Akhter and they are blessed with three sons.