

Mohammed Forrukh Rahman
Head of Chambers
Barrister-at-Law (Lincoln's Inn)
PGDipLaw (Maritime) (Lond) (Merit)
PGCertLaw (Commercial & Corporate) (Lond), LLB (Lond)
Panel Arbitrator, SAARC Arbitration Council(SARCO)
Fellow, Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators (FHKI Arb)
CEDR (UK) Accredited Mediator
Advocate, Supreme Court of Bangladesh.
Phone: +8801755574256
Email: head@rahmansc.com

Mr. Mohammed Forrukh Rahman, PGDipLaw (Maritime) (Lond); PGCertLaw (Corporate & Commercial) (Lond); LLB (Lond), FHKI Arb (Fellow, Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators), is a Barrister of Hon'ble Society of Lincoln's Inn, London and Advocate, Supreme Court of Bangladesh. He was called to the Bar by Hon'ble Society of Lincoln's Inn in 2003 after successful completion of Bar Vocation Course from the College of Law, (now the University of Law) Bloomsbury, London.

Mr. Rahman completed internship from reputed Lee, Khan and Partners (now dissolved) in 2004 on banking and corporate law and pupillage on banking, commercial and corporate Litigation with Mr. Ajmalul Hossain QC. He worked for A Hossain & Associates, Dhaka office under Mr. Hossain QC for nearly 4 years as an associate. While working for A Hossain & Associates, he acted as a lawyer for A Hossain & Associate in Central Bank for the Central Bank Strengthening Project of World Bank from 2005-2006. In 2006 he joined his family law practice, originally commenced by his grandfather in 1920s followed by his father, under a new name and title of Rahman's Chambers.

He has all together 15 years background of working in the field of banking, finance & investment, maritime, construction, international trade, corporate and commercial transactions, power, energy and infrastructure projects etc. For last 12 years he Heads the firm, Rahman's Chambers, which has its own independent standing and now a leading law firm in different practice areas including shipping and corporate and finance.