

Profile of Priyanka Roy

Priyanka Roy is working as the Senior Counsel at Bangladesh International Arbitration Centre (BIAC). Her responsibilities include managing Arbitration and Mediation cases that are conducted under BIAC rules, providing advisory services and assessment of ADR cases. She is also involved in doing research on the emerging trends of alternative dispute resolution, liaison with International Organizations and Law Firms, establishing Collaboration between International Arbitration and Mediation Institutions and organizing seminars and training courses in order to promote and raise awareness regarding alternative dispute resolution system.

Priyanka has completed her Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) from University of London and Master of Laws (LL.M.) from Eastern University. She is an Advocate of District and Sessions Judge Court, Dhaka and also an accredited Civil-Commercial Mediator of ADR ODR International. Before joining BIAC, she has worked at Thailand Arbitration Center (THAC) as a Legal Officer. Besides these, she has participated in several national and international training programs on Mediation and attended ADR Conferences home and abroad.